Appeal No. 407 of 2020

Present: None for the appellant.

Ms. Surbhi Garg, Advocate, ld. counsel for the respondents.

{The aforesaid presence is being recorded through video conferencing since the proceedings are being conducted in virtual Court}

The appellant has sent the affidavit of Sh. Ajay Kumar Gupta, through email, which is taken on record.

We have called this case for the first time at 11.20 A.M. One proxy counsel for the appellant has appeared and has stated that there is some network problem and the ld. counsel for the appellant could not join the proceedings and would join the proceedings when the problem is resolved. We have also tried to telephonically contact the ld. counsel for the appellant but his mobile phone was switched off. Thereafter, we again tried and called the case at 12.45 P.M.. This time she told that ld. counsel for the appellant is on the way to appear before this tribunal in person, thereafter, we have waited for more than two hours but ld. counsel for the appellant has not turned up.

So, the present appeal is hereby dismissed in default.

Copy of this order be communicated to ld. counsel for the parties.

File be consigned to the records.
